The Honorable Judge Joseph J. Farnan, Jr.
United States District Court for the District of Delaware
844 N. King Street, Lock Box 27
Wilmington, DE 19801

Re: L.G. Philips LCD Co., LCD v.
Chi Mei Optoelectronics Corp.; C.A. 06-726-JJF

Dear Judge Farnan:

I write in response to Mr. Kirk's letter in the referenced matter, which letter was served yesterday.

Mr. Kirk's proposal would prejudice my client unfairly. Mr. Kirk has proposed that the time within which he must file his answering brief on ViewSonic's motion to stay be extended to May 30, 2007. However, that would eliminate ViewSonic's opportunity to reply.

The history of this motion is as follows. The motion was originally filed on April 9 as one of three motions to be heard on the Court's May 4 motion day. Mr. Kirk contacted counsel and asked for more time in which to respond to the motions. Consequently, on April 30 ViewSonic withdrew its three pending motions and re-filed them on May 1, set for hearing on the Court's June 1 motion day. That filing date would make Mr. Kirk's brief due on May 15, or 35 days after the motion was originally filed. That schedule would have allowed ViewSonic only one week for its reply, while Mr. Kirk would have had 35 days to prepare his answering brief.

Now, Mr. Kirk wants 52 days to prepare his answering brief, leaving ViewSonic no opportunity to reply. That would be inequitable, to say the least.

Mr. Kirk correctly points out that there are several pending motions filed by ViewSonic, including the foregoing motion to stay, a motion for a more definite statement, and a motion to dismiss. As a dispositive motion, ViewSonic's motion to dismiss will be heard on a longer briefing schedule to be agreed upon by the parties subject to the approval of the Court. Under the Court's standing order, however, the other two motions are on a separate schedule, and set to be heard within 30 days of filing.

ViewSonic recognizes that all three of its pending motions are logically inter-related. Perhaps all of these issues could be resolved by permitting the parties to set a briefing schedule for the three motions so that they can all be heard together.

Counsel are available for consultation if the Court has any questions.

Respectfully,

Edmond D. Johnson
